

Navigating the Course Video Transcript

Hey there! In this video I am going to show you how to make your way around this online course. What you're looking at here is the course player. Yours might look a little different than mine here. Your instructor has probably customized this to ensure that you have the best learning experience.

On the left here, you can see all the lessons in this course. You can open and close chapters and click on lessons to view them. This is a video lesson, and you can press play to start watching it. When you're finished you can select this button to complete and continue on. Your overall progress in this course is here. There are lesson options in this part of the course player, and you can join in discussions if your instructor has them enabled for this course. Leave a post or reply to a thread to join the conversation. You can get back to your student dashboard and account settings by selecting this button.

That's all for now! Happy learning!
