

Professional Portfolio

Be sure to save this assignment to print off and include in your Professional Portfolio.

Make sure that you scroll down and complete all parts of this assignment.

RC IV-4 Family Resources Guide: Child Development Resources

Directions:

1. Provide a list of 3 or more websites, and brief descriptions of each website, that provide current information to help families understand how young children develop and learn. Include one current article from each website.
2. Web sites must contain articles that help families understand the development and learning of the age group which corresponds with the setting that you are applying for the CDA Credential (preschool setting: 3s, 4s, or 5s) OR (infant or toddler).
3. At least one article must relate to child guidance.

Source #1

The Family Hope Center, (610) 397-1737, <https://www.familyhopecenter.com>, 2490 Boulevard of the Generals, Suite 250, Norristown, PA 19403

Our mission is to help children with neurodevelopmental disorders from around the world. We strive to improve children's' immediate quality of life and future potential. We also educate and empower parents to take a primary and active role in their children's' development. We believe in nurturing each child's ability to engage the world.

Source #2

Community Development Center, cdc@cdctn.org, (931) 684-8681, 111 Eaglette Way
Shelbyville, TN 37160

In 1995 the Child Care Resource and Referral center was established to provide training to all Department of Human Services licensed family and childcare center staff in the South-Central District. Additional programs include training in early childhood nutrition and fitness, safe sleeping, fire and safety procedures, inclusion of children with developmental challenges in childcare and Strengthening Families.

Source #3

Early Emory Center for Child Development and Enrichment, 404-727-3964, <http://www.early.emory.edu>, The Justin Tyler Truax Building 1551 Shoup Court Atlanta, GA 30322

Parents are the most important adults in a child's life. Our program works with parents to strengthen those relationships and for families to experience our program as a community where they can connect with other parents for support and friendship.

Print off and place your THREE Resource IV-4 articles on how young children develop and learn in your Professional Portfolio behind this page.

Remember that one of the three articles must relate to child guidance.

NEXT, place your THREE Resource IV-4 articles on how young children develop and learn.

